Programme Notes

-The Wilf Black is a stand -alone prize match for original sporting and military Black Powder arms and does not count towards the Grand Aggregate. Competitors not shooting for prizes may use the match as a warm up and means to establish initial elevations for remaining matches.

-All matches are 5 sighting shots and 10 rounds on score. Competitors may convert either the last two, or final sighting shots to score per DCRA Rules.

-In the Wimbledon, Long Range and BP 1000 matches, the highest score for each of the two matches per range will be entered on the prize list.

-You don't have to pull targets! All marking is provided by the world famous Smiths Falls High School girls.
